This architectural floor plan depicts a building with a central corridor and several rooms. The rooms are color-coded: a large red room on the left, a large orange room on the right, and a large blue room at the bottom. The central corridor is light gray. The plan includes various furniture items like tables, chairs, and sofas, as well as architectural details like stairs, doors, and windows. The overall layout is symmetrical, with the central corridor acting as a hub for the surrounding rooms.
